PRESS RELEASE BY THE MINISTRY FOR THE ECONOMY, INVESTMENT AND SMALL BUSINESSES

Further Cooperation in investment and Trade between Malta and China

The Minister for the Economy, Investment and Small Businesses Chris Cardona together with Malta's Investment Envoy Ms Sai Mizzi Liang today hosted a collaboration meeting with the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce and the Shanghai Foreign Investment Board.

Collaboration initiatives were discussed with the Vice Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce Mr. Sang Qi and senior representatives of the Shanghai Foreign Investment Board.

The two sides discussed the pipeline of investment opportunities currently being considered and developed.

During the meeting it was also agreed that a joint initiative with the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce will be developed to facilitate further collaboration and investment from interested Shanghai based companies. Ms Mizzi Liang will also act as the focal point for this initiative.

The Vice Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce said that this year the commission approved billions in overseas investment in other countries.

Minister Chris Cardona said that the Government is actively working to diversify the focal areas in which investment could be attracted to Malta and highlighted Government's priorities.
