30th November 2015

The National Commission for the Promotion of Equality (NCPE) has the pleasure of inviting you to the Final Conference of the project co-financed by the PROGRESS Programme entitled Forms of Violence in Malta – a gender perspective.

The Final Conference shall be held on Monday 14th December 2015 at The Palace Hotel - Sliema between 8.45am and 5.00pm. The Hon Minister for Social Dialogue, Consumer Affairs and Civil Liberties, Dr Helena Dalli, will be opening this conference.

Forms of Violence in Malta – a gender perspective included the following objectives:

- to raise further awareness on different forms of violence on women and girls
- to spread the message of zero tolerance of violence on women and girls
- to provide further information to policy-makers on the current situation on violence on women and girls and the respective circumstances and needs at a national level
- to sensitise professional persons who work with victims or perpetrators of violence, and to provide them with the tools and knowledge to be better able to assist victims or potential victims of violence against women and girls
- to further encourage victims of violence against women and girls to take action to combat or prevent violent experiences
- to raise awareness and disseminate more information on female genital mutilation (FGM)

Kindly note that:

- Transport for persons with a disability; and
- Sign language interpretation

are available upon request and need to be indicated in the registration form. Free parking will be made available on a first come first served basis.

Kindly confirm your attendance by Monday 7th December 2015 by sending an email to equality@gov.mt. Should you be unable to attend, kindly nominate your delegate or representative.

Renee Laiviera
Commissioner
